Honorable Cascade County Commissioners,

Isn't it communist-leaning and basically a tendency toward centralized government, which I understand communism is, to slap Great Falls with an apocalypse-meeting slaughterhouse to be prepared for the end times or war, when, I assume, it is anticipated dinner meat won't arrive on trucks or airplanes?

Wouldn't we want our citizenry to take care of that when the time comes, if it comes? I mean, I know cows are cute, with those big soulful eyes.

But I think American citizenry all over America is capable of taking care of business when it comes to killing some cow or finding some mean person to do it.

Isn't that our job? Killing animals to eat? Unless it isn't part of our diet?

Do we really need our government to protect our right and our ability to do it?

I couldn't But I certainly don't expect to run out of freezer options. And I don't see how a slaughter facility is instrumental in that.

It isn't. People are
And governance.

So I am opposed to the zoning changes being considered we have a right to raise our own food or find someone to do it for us.

There is no shortage of butcherable-capable people for butcherableeligible animals. We don't need some corporate or government-enabled facility to do it for us.
