The results of the 2014 Federal General Election were presented to the Canvass Board by Lynn DeRoch. Lynn noted that there were 41,221 active voters within Cascade County and 11,666 inactive voters. The percentage for turnout was calculated by using the active voters only and the turnout was 65%. There were 5,558 voters that cast their votes, in person, at Exhibition Hall on election day. The remainder of the votes were cast by absentee/mail ballot.

The results of the election were accepted and results were certified. A copy was sent to the Cascade County Clerk & Records' Office for recording. A certified copy was also submitted to the Secretary of States Office.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:43 am.
